               Do you want to take a five-minute break, we'll Q.
 3
     get that document, and then we can reconvene?
 4
               MR. REILLY-BATES: Yeah, that's fine.
               THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The time is 11:41 a.m.

13
               Mr. Augustine, we've given you Exhibit 158. Can 0.
14
     you identify this for the record, please?
15
              Yes, this is a rent roll, which is a
          A .
16
    forward-looking document that shows what the tenant pays in 17
     the future and what their base rent is and when the lease 18
    expires.
19
               Okay. If we're looking at the first line of Q.
20
     this, do you see the Unicorn Bar & Restaurant?
21
         A .
             I do.
22
               And according to this, it said that the lease is 0.
23
     going to run until the end of Confidential; is that correct?
24
          A.
               That's a Confidential . I think it's a Confidential 25
     lease with two 5-year options. I don't believe it's a

1	Confidential term.
2	Q. Okay. How about the monthly rent? Do you see
3	it's reflected there as Confidential. Does that sound right
4	to you?
5	A. Yes, it does.
6	Q. Okay. A moment ago we looked at Exhibit 157,
7	which is the damages spreadsheet, and we had just looked at
8	the loss of rent line item on the second page of that,
9	which came to a total of Confidential. Do you recall that?
10	A. Yes, I do.
11	Q. By my math, that's about eight months of lost
12	rent. Does that sound right to you?
13	A. No, by my math that's six months of lost rent and
14	six months potentially of lost CAMS.
15	Q. Okay. And can you explain why the landlord
16	agreed to give the Unicorn Bar & Restaurant six months of
17	rent relief?
18	A. Because on the day they were going to reopen,
19	they called us up and said, We got a problem. There's no
20	way we're going to be able to open up our outside dining
21	area under the current situation. And then as time
22	progressed on into July, they realized that there was no
23	business coming back based on the fact that there was a
24	giant scar in the Pike/Pine Urban Neighborhood, and so they
25	asked for six months of rent relief.
